WINSTON LEARNING SERIES

Experience Dyslexia

A virtual learning disabilities simulation

Saturday, September 26, 2026 - 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

This intense, interactive workshop gives attendees a first-hand understanding of the difficulties and frustrations students with reading and language disabilities encounter.

To most, this is a powerful experience that solicits compassion, respect, and tearful emotion for anyone who faces such challenges 24 hours a day.

Teaching the Child Who Learns Differently

Tuesday, October 6, 2026, from 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Winston's faculty members will present an overview of learning disabilities and specific strategies and tools to help students with learning disabilities succeed in school.

Life After Winston

Tuesday, January 12, 2027 - 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

A panel of Winston alumni will speak about their life experiences and the transition from Winston to college and/or their careers.
